

The Journal.

TERMS:—$1.50 in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

W.M. NASH, Editor

GALLIPOLIS, THURSDAY, DEC. 2, 1880.

The JOURNAL will be found on sale at the Book Store of W. H. M. CHILL, where also can be had, at 8 P. M. each day of publication, the Cincinnati Daily Gazette, Commercial and Enquirer, and where also subscriptions for either of the Dailies or Weeklies may be left.

Dr. A. G. Byers, Ohio's efficient secretary of the State Board of Charities, has been offered the chaplaincy of the State Prison of Massachusetts. He will accept.

Secretary Sherman estimates that $283,302,722 will be required for the support of the Government for the next fiscal year.

O'Brien pleads guilty to an indictment for perjury in the Chicago letter forgery case.

See advertisement of New York Observer. This is one of the best family papers published. The young and the old will find it alike profitable.

They are talking more of "Democratic Fusion," and less of Republicanism, in New York, as the cause of Hancock losing the State. Democrats excel in everything.

The attention of the readers of the JOURNAL is directed to the advertisement of the Harper & Brothers publications. In their several departments they rank first in the list of similar publications. Now is the time to subscribe.

A railroad to connect the Mississippi Valley with the City of Mexico is receiving the attention of capitalists. Such a road would be of great commercial interest to the United States, as it is believed it would be equivalent to the acquisition of the trade of Mexico, which now is divided among some of the European States. The friends of the enterprise are sanguine of success.

The Comptroller of the Currency makes the circulation of the country, Nov. 1, as follows:

National Bank notes	$342,063,451
Legal tender notes	$16,681,018
Gold coin	451,012,030
Silver coin	158,271,237
Total	$1,000,037,536

Secretary Sherman's position regarding his candidacy for Senator, is thus defined in a letter to Capt. L. D. Myers, Columbus:

I intended to say to you that while I could make no personal effort to secure the place of Senator, I would gladly accept it, and if elected, would faithfully serve the people of Ohio in that position. Very truly yours,

JOHN SHERMAN.

An entire passenger train on the B. & O. R. R., near Cumberland, Md., Saturday, was thrown from the track by a broken rail, and went down an embankment, a distance of 80 or 90 feet. Several lives lost, and many wounded.

This (Wednesday) is the day for the meeting of the Presidential Electors, in all the States.

W. S. Forney, Esq., Prosecuting Attorney of Lawrence County, died at Ironton last week of kidney disease. The Ironton papers are full of kind remembrances of him. He was at the time of his death engaged to be married to Miss Ella Kerr, daughter of the late Capt. W. H. Kerr, of the steamer Buckeye State. We were well acquainted with Mr. Forney, and cheerfully second the language of the Ironton Register, which says, "He was of a jolly disposition, and had a kind, cheerful word for all." Rev. J. H. Gardner, in his funeral service, said of him, "He had a kindly word and open hand and a pleasant smile for everybody." Mr. Forney was big hearted and true; we shall miss and never forget him.

Pros. Atty. White deserves great credit for his management of criminal prosecutions during the recent term of court. He handled himself with the familiarity and ease of a veteran, and didn't lose a criminal case during the term. He is A. 1.

For the Journal.

Gallia Furnace Cleanings. November melancholy days are gone, the freezing polar breeze has left only the remembrance of its sad wailing winds.

All nature is clothed in a mantle of pure white; and we, we say, to the rabbits and foxes, for their day of visitation draweth nigh.

No one crazy and much rejoicing over the result of election. There was strenuous efforts made by both parties prior to the election to secure full vote. The Democrats held their own. Republicans lost two on account of sickness and removal.

It is still rumored that the Springfield and Southern Ohio Co., intend to extend their line from Jackson C. H. to Center Station, Lawrence county, running through Greenfield along the Dirty Face Valley.

Corn in good demand; much of the corn crop in the Southern part of the township being totally destroyed by the hail storm that passed along last August.

Prof. Hughes, of Centerville, is rendering his aid in developing our musical talent. Mr. Hughes is a good vocalist and pianist.

Old Gallia still in blast and making good iron. Mr. Royer, the clerk, is a stalwart, active Republican.

What has become of our correspondents? Where is Patrick O'Brien and his numerous relatives?

Yours, DE SOTO.

Hutchinson & Baldridge is the only firm that sell the GENUINE OLIVER CHILLED PLOWS and POINTS in Gallia Co., Ohio, and Mason Co., W. Va.

In purchasing always look for the name OLIVER on the beam.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Now when Tim comes down from the Pin and gets belated, he can jot down the number in his reporter note book and all will be lovely. No more sleeping on the curb.

S. Bishop & S. Bishop & Co. met with a severe accident Monday morning. He was working a cut-off saw. A piece of wood caught in the band and stooping beneath the bench to extricate it he drew the saw over and on his head, cutting a gash from the forehead straight over the crown of the skull, measuring six inches. Probing by Drs. Mills and Guthrie indicated that the cut had not extended to the living membrane of the brain, the only danger arising from the wound, says Dr. Mills, is the communication of inflammation to this membrane.

Dr. Needham and family and J. L. Williams will leave for Florida about the first of December. The Doctor's orange orchard bears this year.

Pros. Atty. Powell of Jackson, O., was in town, Tuesday, among his friends. He is a brilliant and promising, besides a good looking young man. He is a son of Squire Powell.

PECULIARLY SAD DEATH.

Mrs. Jno. T. Hampton died Saturday morning of peritonitis, in the 32d year of her age. On Tuesday she gave birth to a child. Puerperal convulsions followed with inflammation, rendered her case hopeless. She was buried on Sunday in Gallipolis Cemetery, the funeral services being conducted at the M. E. Church by Rev. C. F. Chrichton and M. B. Wilson, before a large audience of sympathizing friends. Mrs. Hampton, nee Mary E. Gilbert, had been a bride but a year, anticipating a bright future for herself and family in the new residence being constructed by Mr. Hampton. She was a bright, cheerful lady of good sense. Her mother was in attendance at her last hours. We sympathize with the stricken husband. —[McArthur papers please copy.]

Butterworth and others. Mrs. Neal has also received a congratulatory letter from Mrs. Gen. Garfield.—Ironton Register.

Correct.

The Columbus Journal says: Here in Ohio a large majority of the newspapers and public men, who favor the election of Mr. Sherman to the Senate, do so not because of opposition to Governor Foster, or any other Senatorial aspirant, but because of a settled conviction that the Republican party and the country need the Secretary's services for four or six years longer. There are but few of them who would not rejoice to know that Sherman is to be retained as Secretary of the Treasury for four years more.
